Abner Suarez

a) Year of the greater glory:

All across the earth 2015 will be the year of the greater glory. An unusual release of signs and wonders will be done through the people of G-d in this hour. Look for opportunities to display My glory and power. For indeed this is a time of great harvest in the earth. A harvest of souls, a harvest of power, and though the Kingdoms of the earth continue to shake it is a time of unprecedented opportunity to show forth My goodness and kindness so that My name would be glorified. 2015 will bring an increase of unusual manifestations and spiritual occurrences. 2015 will bring a mass release of unusual physical occurrences, in a way the earth has never seen; particularly avalanches - it will be a physical sign of what is taking place in the Spirit. Yet I command My people not to fear. Do not allow your previous missteps or mishaps to define how you will proceed in this current season of 2015. Even if you failed to see great breakthrough in the area of healing and the miraculous, pursue through practical application and daily declaration. For the extent to which you pursue the power and glory of G-d in this season will be the extent to which you receive. This is the year of the greater glory, this is the year of even greater doors of opportunity and purpose opening to the people of G-d. Yes opportunity is found even in the most challenging times in human history. For My great desire is to bring a release of power and glory that would be visibly displayed to the people and the nations of the earth so that none would perish, and unprecedented awakening of My Son would come to the nations of the earth. Now is a time to stand in faith and believing that the best is yet to come. It is My great desire to release My glory on everything My people touch—their careers, their finances, their unsaved children, the land on which they live—I desire My glory to be designed to go into every place you step your feet. A greater glory will be released in 2015 and the earth will never be seen again. Life will come to dead places and victory will be experienced by all who define themselves by My voice. For My voice is what creates realities that do not exist and My voice is to be the defining sound in My people's life. So come close to me and let My voice be your highest delight in this season.

b) Year of great contrast

For there is a rumbling and shaking and a great change not only taking place in the nations of the earth but also the Church of the Lord Jesus Christ. This is a time of great reformation, though many are falling away from authentic faith and even aligning with the doctrine of demons I say to you My people, do not be alarmed do not fear but though there is a great falling away, there is a great alignment taking place in the church of the Lord Jesus Christ. My people are aligning with heaven in unique way in this hour; the systems of heaven are about to invade the earth. A sign that will be given to My people is the sign of worship, worship that has never been heard will be released in the earth and it will open the eyes of the lost, backslidden, and cause miracles that have never occurred through the people of G-d to take place. A new sound of heaven is being released through the people. Instruments will release sounds that never been heard before or even thought to be created. This is indeed a significant time in human history. I say to My people this is truly an exciting time purpose and goodness for the people of G-d. I am positioning My people in this hour and even in this nation to be able to influence the culture of cities, regions, and nations. My desire and My desire will be fulfilled is that My people would be releasers of My glory and goodness in every sphere of society and that regions and nations would take notice that My grace is upon My people. Even as I elevated Joseph to place favor and prominence in this nation, so too will I place many of My people in strategic regions, cities, and nations for the purposes of G-d to be established and the name of Jesus to be glorified. This is a divine season on My time table and stewardship and divine positioning is a key for My people to receive this season as I intend. This is time of great reformation in the body of Christ, new leaders will emerge in the body of Christ that will stand unified for the purposes of heaven and the advancement of My Kingdom but it will also be a season of great contrast in which the love of many will grow cold and many leaders will depart from the faith and draw people to themselves. Yet the word of the Lord will stand in this season and purposes will be fulfilled. So it is a season of great contrast and even what would appear to be great contradiction. For there is a great dividing and separation taking place in this season. I am releasing power and I am releasing grace to step into the power of G-d as I intend.

c) The year of the great encounter

For there is once again an open door to see, hear and perceive the sound waves of heaven in this hour. I am calling My church to prioritize My presence and My countenance as the foundational ministry. (I see a large wood door like you would see as the door to mansion). As you open this door, through the grace that I am giving you, the riches of inheritance (see like a huge container that one would see at construction site and it's filled with jewels and riches of the Kingdom of G-d) "These riches are the jewels of the Kingdom of G-d that are a keys to the healing of marriages, of individuals, of families, of corporations, of even nations." I desire to give My people key strategies and understanding for the healing of nations in this season. How My people steward their individual destiny will be the extent to which they are able to influence the destiny of entire nations. Great encounter and glory awaits My people as they seek me with their whole heart and being in 2015 and I desire to give great understanding on My people's ability to interact with the unseen realm. For I desire to teach My people in this season that which see in the unseen realm must be manifested and appropriated into the seen realm. Lean into with your whole heart, do not look back for the beauty of Son awaits to be revealed to you in this season.

✓ "If you thought last year was glorious, you have not seen anything yet!"

✓ This is the year of greater glory and greater encounter.

d) A year of strategic vision

For in this season I do not want My people to walk aimlessly about but My deep desire is that you would walk and with great purpose and vision, see above the circumstances of life and be fully persuaded of the final outcome. For My desire is that each of people would walk in complete victory and purpose over every difficulty of life. For this is a defining season in this earth. It is extremely critical that My people have My vision for their life and purpose for many of My people's decisions and visions will determine the next 10 to 15 year of their life. Desire to hear the word of the Lord in this season and quickly obey as you obey you will position yourself for an acceleration of the purposes of G-d so that My name would be glorified. This is a season in which I desire My people to have strategic vision (I saw keys at this point being released to those who said yes) the key would be strategic vision that gives you the ability to not be defined by only the 5 senses but by the ways of heaven. For vision is a crucial aspect of the life of those who live from heaven towards, for when you choose to see life from visionary you are choosing to believe that despite the current opposition you will indeed have victory.

e) Strategic Times

And indeed this is a strategic time in the history of the nations of the earth. The destiny of many nations that have been lands of freedom and hope and the nations of the earth hangs in the balance in this very season. I am looking for faithful priest in those lands who stand in the gap as faithful remnant to cry for mercy and justice and truth to prevail in those nations and even evil would be exposed and destroyed and replaced My Kingdom realities which allow nations and people to flourish. Do not stop contending and declaring that faith, hope, and righteousness would be restored to the nations of the earth. For even this nation, the United States of America, is in a crucial time season, indeed in the next 2 years decisions will be made that will define the purposes of G-d for the next 30 years. Ask for wisdom in this season; contend for righteousness, speak hope, become hope and believe me that My grace would prevail even in this nation. Ask for My grace to prevail, ask for My grace to prevail.

f) Year of Desire fulfilled

2015 will be a year of great transition and change for many in the body of Christ. The accuser of the brethren has tried prevent the purposes of G-d from being established through intimidation, frustration and even weariness, says the Lord, and He has wanted many to give up hope and faith—but many have chosen to remain strong and stand on that which I have spoken, but you have yet to see the breakthrough... but 2015 will be a year of transitioning from hope deferred to desire realized. 2015 will a year of divine manifestation of promises of G-d. Many ministries, individuals, and churches will go from the pit to the palace in 2015. For many will be moved from a place in which they felt imprisoned to their dreams, to seeing those dreams manifested in a moment of time. I am releasing favor to many for the dream of G-d to be fulfilled in their hearts and for great joy to come their surrounding environment. 2015 will be the beginning of desire fulfilled and released, now is not the time to abandon that which you know the Lord has spoken to you.
