“Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds from the mouth of God.” (Matt. 4:4)

June 2018

Dear Partner

I pray this letter finds you living from the joy and the rest of the Lord. I want to once again thank you for your continued support of this ministry. My prayer for you on a regular basis is that through your partnership with this ministry, God would multiply the seed you have sown and manifest Himself in every part of your life and that of your family. It is an honor to have you stand with me in the mandate God has placed upon my life!

As I write this letter, my next international trip is just a few days away. I will be in the nations of Romania, Moldova, and the United Kingdom. About two years ago, the Holy Spirit impressed upon me that the door to Europe would begin to open to me and reformation would once again come from the continent that birthed the reformation. Would you join your faith with mine that God would pour out His Spirit during this trip and that the Holy Spirit would continue to supernaturally connect me with leaders that I am to partner with long-term?

Last month I wrote to you concerning the privilege we have been given as believers to inquire of God. As believers, for us to receive everything God intends for us in the earth we must live a lifestyle of inquiry. One clear attribute of God found in scripture is that He is holy. The holiness of God demands that He will not release to humanity what they do not desire or what they have not asked for. Therefore, our hunger for God is a key aspect of our life of inquiry. Our born-again spirit longs to live in continual pursuit of the realities of heaven. This month I want to offer some principles that I have learned to help me live a lifestyle of hunger:

- Daily guard my heart and mind from ungodly influences. (Proverbs 4:23)
- Seek to always have a childlike heart. (Matthew 18:3)
- Fill my heart continuously with the Word of God, the presence of God, and daily set aside time to listen to His voice. (Matthew 4:4)
- Filling my heart and mind accelerates my hunger. (Matthew 5:6)
- God will respond to my pursuit and inquiry of Him. (James 4:8)
- God will respond to my pursuit by giving me truth in degrees. (2 Peter 3:18)
- I am responsible for stewarding what He reveals to me. (Matthew 25:21)
- In my stewardship, I must become comfortable in continually being stretched. (Philippians 2:7)

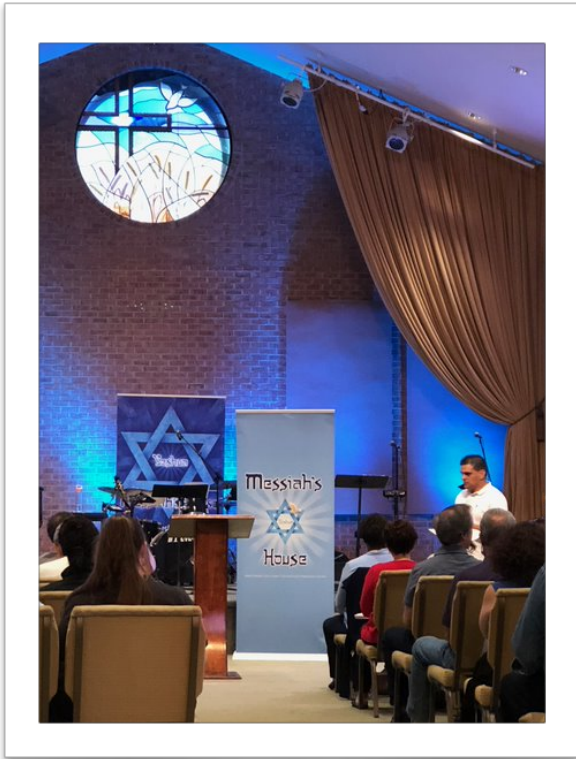

This month I bless you with a greater lifestyle of hunger! May your hunger for God cause you to continuously inquire of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit! May His response to your inquiry cause you and your family to grow in the knowledge of God! As you walk in the knowledge of God, may the blessing of the Lord increase and cause the world around you to see the King of Glory!

Thank you once again for your continued support of this ministry. Please continue to send us your prayer requests and testimonies. We want to rejoice with you at what God has done and stand with you in believing God for what He has promised! I also want you and your family to be sure to set aside December 6-8, 2018, to join us for our Healing the Land Conference. We are co-hosting this conference with my dear friend Michael Thornton of Ignite Ministries. Our special guests for this conference will be Matt Lockett and Will Ford. I believe with all my heart this will be an incredibly strategic conference for the state of North Carolina and reformation of the Church in the Southeast region. This conference will take place at Global River Church in Wilmington, North Carolina.

May God increase you more and more!
